CERTIFIED COIN DEALER newsletter

CCDN — a weekly report on the Sight-Unseen certified market published by the Coin Dealer Newsletter (est. 1963)

Over 500 Sight-Unseen Bid Increases For NGC Buffalo Nickels & Type In Serious Demand

The sight-unseen market is alive with Bidders actively seeking to buy rare coins. The market has been doing well throughout the year and we may be seeing a consolidation of perceived value between grading services. Is the gap between NGC and PCGS certified coins closing? For several weeks, we have seen increasing Bids taking place in the NGC market. The serious sight-unseen Bid jumps for NGC coins, may be pointing to more than just a closing gap. We notice that on several issues NGC is now on par with PCGS, and in some cases even higher. Dealers are seeking coins and they are throwing their Bids at slabs that they believe to be undervalued. Comparisons are constantly being made, but in the final analysis prudent business decisions are taking place. Dealers are looking to buy coins that afford them the opportunity to make a profit and still satisfy their customer's needs. They also know that if they don't increase their Bid, they may be missing an opportunity and that's the key for a few astute dealers. One dealer told us that his recent increased Bids on the electronic dealer networks allowed a seller to approach him with a rare Flowing Hair Dollar. An AU50 1794 Flowing Hair Dollar, in a holder, is an outstanding coup for any dealer. This dealer consummated the deal and is totally thrilled with his acquisition. Again, it was his increased Bid for these Dollars in various Circulated grades that brought this seller to his table in St. Louis at the Central States Numismatic Societies Anniversary Convention. And he is not alone! Many dealers have been steadily increasing their sight-unseen Bids and it has been paying them dividends.

Gold bullion is continuing its bullish ways, and as of this writing it is powering up through the mid $340s towards the important $350 per ounce plateau. Dealers are aware of just how important higher bullion prices are to the coin market. They know that interest increases dramatically with higher bullion prices and this interest generally translates into more rare coin sales. Plus signs are found in several areas of the market this week, especially targeting NGC certified coins. Mint State Type, Proof Type and Buffalo Nickels are charging forward because of some very ambitious and dynamic Bidding. In some cases the percentage increases are amazing. However, it is important to keep-in-mind that a jump Bid is not necessarily a guarantee that a coin will be forthcoming. Still, it does make the owners of those coins consider their options a bit more carefully. It also allows dealers to tell their customers that have bought these coins in the past the good news. Increases in the Mint State Type category for NGC examples are widespread from 3-Cent Silvers thru Trade Dollars. The grade demand is also diverse from MS61 thru MS67. Similarly, we see strong Bidding activity present among NGC Proof Type coins. Again, Bidding is diverse in grade and Type. Interest is heaviest from 3-Cent Nickels thru Trade Dollars. We also want to note that some discounting is taking place among Proof 67 issues. These discounts are a result of recent auction activity. Most often, it is a case where dealers need to raise money quickly and Proof 67 coins can usually provide a nice sum.

NGC Buffalo Nickels have made some impressive gains with the recent increase in sight-unseen Bids. Apparently, dealers are trying to buy most of the dates in the series up to 1934. Again, all Mint State grades are in demand and strong, aggressive Bidding is evident. Registry set demand is most likely playing a role in this activity. Those collector/investors working on registry sets continue to grow and dealers are determined to assist them in their endeavor.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

PROOFLIKE MORGAN DOLLARS

Over $1 Million For 1870-S Liberty Seated Dollar '93-S Morgans & Early Walkers Display Strength

Dealers have learned that by raising Bids to levels that more closely resemble current values for select coins they are able to get more calls. Hopefully these calls lead directly to transactions. It's all about the difficulties dealers are experiencing today while trying to buy coins in a very tough market. One dealer from the southeastern portion of the United States said, "I think it's a two-edge, changing market." He says that it has become "very hard to buy coins and even harder to sell them." It all has to do with the bull market resulting in strong Bid increases that have occurred over the past year and the not enough supply to satisfy demand. Dealers know that in order to be competitive today, they must extend their Bids even further so they can have an opportunity to buy the coins that they need. They are aware that the business is getting tougher, but without the coins they don't have an opportunity to complete transactions. Invariably, for dealers, the question becomes how much can I afford to pay to buy a particular rare coin and still be able to sell it to my customer? Therefore they have become much more selective when Bidding, while at the same time increasing their aggressiveness and determination to be successful. Often, dealers are able to Bid more strongly because they have ready customers waiting to buy coins. An example of this may be found by looking at this week's huge jump for 1893-S Morgan Dollars in MS65. Sight-Unseen Bid has increased to $185,000 for either NGC or PCGS examples. Incidentally, the Bid for NGC represents nearly a 50 percent increase. The dealer simply said that his buyer, who recently purchased a similar example from him in gem condition, wishes to buy another. Still, this dealer cautions that prices have increased so much that the market may need to adjust at some point. Despite that warning he continues to raise Bids for select coins.

While he still believes that there is a lot of demand for coins, he knows that select areas are hot while others are cool. He observes that select key dates may have hit their plateau levels — such as the 1916-D Mercury Dime, 1909-S VDB Lincoln Cents and 1877 Indian Head Cents. These keys have increased considerably and appear to be topping out. However, he does see exceptional strength for Standing Liberty Quarter key and semi-key dates. He has customer's clamoring for the 1916 and the 1918/7-S in all circulated and Mint State grades. Full Head examples are in demand as well. He also says that Morgan Dollars remain very hot. You can never have enough Carson City Morgans on hand. Numerous buyers are still actively seeking these popular issues. He also agrees with other dealers who have told us that the state Quarter program has turned a lot of amateur collectors into more serious collectors. Finally, he credits the Internet generally, and eBay specifically for the vast number of new collectors buying rare coins today.

This week we see increasing Bids continuing in select areas of the market. Walking Liberty Half Dollars are number one this week with many plus signs appearing. However the increases aren't targeting the later dates as is usually the case, but rather the tough and desirable early dates. Silver Commemoratives have many plus signs for nearly all Mint State grades. However, Gold Commems are displaying some discounting, mainly in the MS65 grade. Besides the 1893-S, Morgans are generally strong with plus signs scattered throughout the series. Most notably, the Bid jumps for common date MS64 DMPL issues, now Bid at $126. Proof Type is generally firm while a few high-grade issues are being discounted.

The L.K. Rudolf Collection of U.S. Silver Dollars and other consignments combined for more than $6.7 Million in New York City. Stack's conducted the sale on May 13-14 with several records being set. We have listed a few of the highlights.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets.
Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit on a sight basis.

Short-Set Walkers Extremely Active
Dealers Begin Busy Period In California

This is a particularly busy time of the year for dealers. Many are staying at home trying to accommodate their customers from their retail shops all across the country. These dealers have told us that sales have been down slightly from what they were just a few months ago. They say that today's buyer remains more cautious. They believe that it is a result of the weak economy, higher unemployment statistics and a less than robust economic forecast for the near future. The recently upgraded Orange warning level, the second highest level, due to increased "chatter" picked-up by our home land security intelligence network has only added to today's woes. Still there are some things still happening that is causing dealers to smile. The recent and sharp increase in the price of Gold bullion has been responsible for an increased number of phone calls and traffic to local coin shops. This interest is primarily targeting the bullion sensitive $20 Liberty and Saint-Gaudens Gold as well as modern American Eagles. Added interest for Gold may mean future interest in rare coins. Several dealers are also planning their travel schedules that will include coin shows and public auctions. The major Long Beach Expo to be held in California May 29-June 1 promises to be exciting. The famous King of Siam 1804 Dollar will be on display at the show. At least one dealer believes that the recent rise in Gold Spot is going to help the show but he is still not sure what to expect. He is unsure because of the weaker than normal Central State Numismatic Society Show held earlier in St. Louis. He thinks that a dichotomy exists from what we are experiencing at shows compared to our retail sales at home. There seems to be more unsolicited calls and interest at home for rare coins but not as much on the road at shows. He thinks that it may be because the people attending coin shows are frustrated by the lack of fresh material that is available. Often, these collector/investors are very knowledgeable about coins and travel great distances and at great expense to attend the shows. Some dealers are also equally frustrated by this condition as well. They say that scarcer dates and premium quality coins are just not available in the quantities that they need. Besides the trading on the bourse, dealers will be battling one another as well as some savvy collector/investors during the several public auctions both preceding and during the show. Also, some dealers tell us that cash flow is strained at the present time. The decrease in the number of trades at the $1,000 to $3,000 level may account for this problem. Still, dealers tell us that even though they are writing fewer invoices, those that are written have a greater dollar total.

Walking Liberty Half Dollars are realizing very strong demand in the sight-unseen market. Since early 2002, interest and activity have been strong for this attractive design and denomination. However, this demand is most noticeable over the last four weeks as 471 Walking Liberty Halves have changed hands on the Certified Coin Exchange, the only trading system that currently provides transaction information. Compare this to a total of 460 examples that traded during the first four months of the year on the same system. The demand is especially chasing the short-set dates (1940-1947-D) certified by NGC and PCGS grading MS65 and better. Check out the large number of trades indicated by a "t" in the market column of this week's Walker chart. Twenty coins that comprise the set not only make it affordable (no stoppers), but a smart way to make use of your empty green and blue slab boxes that may be just lying around. Proof Gold is also making some noise this week. Increases are taking place for PR61 thru PR63 in several denominations including the expensive 1879 $4 Flowing Hair Stellas. Rarities such as the 1916 Doubled Die and 1937-D 3-Legged Buffalo Nickels, and the $50 Pan-Pac Octagonal Commem are higher this week as well. Some discounting is also evident throughout the market which may be reflecting a bit of a cash flow problem for some.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer–to–dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks, sell lists, coin shows and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues. The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase, or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication, we track the lowest sales–related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" Lowest asking price during the week prior to publication (*w*eek old); "m" Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (*m*onth old); "t" *T*rade during the most recent month; "lm" Lowest asking price appearing *l*ast *m*onth; "lt" *T*rade appearing *l*ast month; "ot" *T*rade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" auction older than 1 month.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight–unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit on a sight basis.

"This is the book about the coin business you can't afford to be without." - NEWSWEEK

"Should be read before a single coin is bought - and read again and again!" - Coin World

UNPRECEDENTED SIX-TIME NUMISMATIC LITERARY GUILD AWARD WINNER

Traditionally, learning a lesson in the rare coin market has been very expensive. You would buy a coin for $500, find out later that it was worth only $50, and, thus, you would have to pay $450 to learn just one lesson. But now, thanks to the fourth edition of The Coin Collector's Survival Manual™, by Scott A. Travers, you no longer have to pay a fortune to learn about how to buy and sell coins profitably.

This thoroughly revised edition examines the coin field from an insider's perspective and continues to break new ground in revealing the ins and outs of coin collecting and investing. Excellent photographs and detailed charts amplify the encyclopedic, clearly written, meticulously organized text. You'll learn about the following:

- How to look at coins the way the professionals do
- How to determine what a coin is worth and what grade the leading certification services would assign to it
- How to spot slight friction on otherwise "Gem" coins
- How to tell the difference between proof and prooflike
- How lighting affects appearance—and the latest in halogen flashlights
- Altered and counterfeit detection techniques
- How to judge price guide accuracy
- Selecting and testing a coin dealer

SPECIAL SECTIONS ON:

- Doctored coins, how to detect them, and the case of the doctored hoard of gold rarities that got slabbed
- The real truth about slab services "fixed grading standard" claims and premium quality coins
- Revelations from a leading coin trader
- A grading service founder's startling admission of modified grading standards
- The newest tax laws

- How not to get ripped off if you buy coins through the mail or over the Internet
- Profitable - and not-so-profitable - liquidation techniques
- How to buy and sell at conventions like the pros do
- How to spot a cleaned and artificially toned coin
- How to choose a non-destructive coin holder and safe—as well as the right storage method
- A review of some Internet web sites, with a legal analysis
- Requirements of the FTC telemarketing act
- The real facts behind the toning corrosion controversy

NEW information in the fourth edition:

- Courageous information about on-line auctions—no other numismatic author has ever been as bold in exposing Internet scams!
- A comparison of PCGS versus NGC—which service does the market really favor?
- Stunning exposé and bombshell interview on coin "doctoring"
- Special full-color section on artificially toned and doctored coins

and much, much more!

Market Optimism Evident At Long Beach Pre-Expo Auctions Realize Over $13 Million

The Long Beach Expo is in progress with dealers still feeling cautiously optimistic. Dealer set-up day was busy with transactions taking place across the bourse. One dealer said that demand was keen for GSA "CC" Morgan Dollars. He had a $15,000 group of NGC graded GSA Dollars that quickly sold. Carson City Dollars have been hot for some time now and original GSAs are even hotter. Another dealer specializing in early Gold said that he was actively buying pre-1840 Gold. Denominations needed include $2.50, $5 and $10 Gold. This is an area of the market that is facing strong demand with more perceived upside potential, possibly because of the limited supply. Standing Liberty Quarters were also briskly being sold. Demand was especially noticeable for those certified issues graded MS64 thru MS67 with Full Head. Key and semi-key dates of all series and denominations are among those issues avidly sought-after at Long Beach.

Most dealers believe that the overall coin market is "pretty good." Dealers are quick to point out its strengths which have been evident for some time now. We know that fresh, original material can command strong Bids and again, dealers are reflecting this sentiment. This is true for any numismatic rare coin that has been off the market for several years. Those coins that haven't been excessively dipped or "played with" are realizing aggressive Bids. Collector coins are another frequently heard response that dealers say is an area of the market that is in strong demand. Coins such as Indian Head Cents, Buffalo Nickels, early Lincoln Cents and Washington Quarters have attracted a considerable amount of attention. Collectors are busily working on building sets. The registry phenomenon has done wonders to stimulate and keep the demand growing for these issues. Everyone wants to have a coin that is the finest, or among the finest known for its date. This focus can usually foster pride and accomplishment for those engaged in this endeavor. Collecting takes on an even greater purpose and challenge than just filling in all the holes.

The sight-unseen market is still experiencing strength, but less than we have seen in previous weeks. Some dealers will pull their aggressive sight-unseen Bids during major conventions if they are not able to monitor the trading networks. Increases are scattered across the Mint State Type chart with demand heaviest for issues in all Uncirculated grades up to MS66. Interest is strong for 3-Cent Silvers thru Dollars. We also see that Proof Type is solid with increases taking place for both Types of Liberty Seated Dollars. Importantly, the popular 1915-S Pan-Pac $50 Round and Octagonal Gold Commemoratives are higher in MS61 thru MS64. These higher Bids are meant to entice those that have bought these coins at lower levels to sell. DMPL Morgan Dollars continue to edge higher with dealers, again, increasing their Bid for common issues grading MS64. Generic Mint State 67 Dollars are also higher, now at $565.

A pair of Pre-Expo auctions held in Southern California hammered over $13 million. The Pre-Long Beach Elite Coin Auction by Superior realized $9.5 million May 25-27 in Beverly Hills. The Dr. Jacob Terner collection Pre-Long Beach Auction by Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles realized $3.8 million May 26-27 in Los Angeles. We have listed a few certified highlights from each auction below.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services determined through careful study of market activity (including the [illegible] nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Proof Lincoln Cents Make The Grade
Market Liquidity Improving

Dealers love this kind of market and the serious demand that is being experienced in all its segments. They simply say that the market is "great." They are also pleased that there's liquidity both ways, buying and selling. Unlike the situation that they were facing several months ago, dealers are better able to buy coins today. The difference is that they have to pay a greater amount for them. However, they don't mind paying the strong money because they have ready buyers. This is true even at today's strong price levels. Other factors have also played a role in the strength and duration of demand. The increased prices have forced some coins to market. Those buyers of select dates and denominations over the last year have seen their investments appreciate rather rapidly. We know that many of these buyers are collectors but some are collector/investors who are happy to sell and take a profit. Dealers do tell us that many others are keeping their coins longer, a condition that makes it ripe for even higher prices. Activity has also been quite brisk for Gold bullion these last few weeks. We have seen prices gyrate wildly, at times, but the overall market sentiment is still bullish. We know that this situation is certainly good for the coin market.

Slight discounting is seen in several areas of the market as dealers "blow-out" some positions to raise cash for other coins. This is a normal aspect of the business for dealers that use the electronic trading networks to their advantage. They should also monitor the market column of the Bluesheet that we publish on the fourth week of the month. Unfortunately for some, we are still seeing coins sell at auction for prices below current sight-unseen Bids. Dealers that use prudence in this regard are in a position to benefit from other's mistakes. The highlight this week is to be found on our Proof Singles chart. Strong Bidding is evident for Proof 64 thru Proof 66 Red Lincoln Cents from 1937-1942. Dealers have recognized that the old levels were just way to low for them to hope to buy any examples. In some cases, dealers have doubled their Bid hoping to quickly capture a few of these desirable issues. One dealer said that he has many customers looking to buy Proof Lincoln Cents. Early issues that grade MS64 Red and better are realizing tremendous activity and prices. Numerous collectors of Lincoln's are happy to add a few Proof examples from the 1940s. That's why dealers are able to sell them individually all the time. Dealers also point out that the population reports indicate that this area of the market is seriously undervalued. To dealers, the "pop reports" can sometimes justify their take on a select area of coins. Now there will be another "pop" statistic for dealers to track. NGC has announced that it will begin to grade Silver-Clad Proof Eisenhower Dollars that are still sealed in their original U.S. Mint rigid holders. These San Francisco Mint examples are popularly referred to as "brown box" Ikes.

We continue to see supporting sight-unseen Bids for many segments of the market. For example, a solid Bid of $185,000, sight-unseen, remains in place for the coveted 1893-S Morgan Dollar in NGC or PCGS MS65. A Buffalo Nickel key is this week's target for another dealer. The 1916-D is extremely difficult to locate in gem MS66 condition, but still dealers have customers waiting to buy examples when they become available. Obviously some of these customers may be working on registry sets, hoping to complete a set that will be among the finest known. Combined, NGC and PCGS have only slabbed 9 examples with none finer. Also note that Barber Quarters and Half Dollars are higher on our Mint State Type chart. So are select Indian Cents in various degrees of Mint Red.

Walkers & Type Score In June

1936 Proof Walker Realizes $11,500 At Auction

Last week we indicated that strong demand was somewhat evident in all segments of the rare coin market. This week only solidifies that statement as we still see dealers willing to post an increasing number of higher sight-unseen Bids in many areas. The increasing collector base along with an increasing number of customer orders has left dealers little choice when it comes to Bidding. That's because they have been facing seriously decreasing inventory levels for several months now and this situation has only been exacerbated by the growing influx of back orders. A strange phenomenon can be spotted in most financial, and other markets such as rare coins. Analysts have observed that when little activity is being generated for a particular good, nobody seems to want to buy it or is even willing post a reasonable Bid. However when serious demand is forcing prices higher, even sharply higher as we have witnessed this year and last for rare coins, many individuals want in on the action. We know that these individuals are willing to pay the price and more if necessary. Dealers have told us that a lot of their customers are financially secure enough to buy at higher prices despite the weakness seen in our economy. Many collectors and collector/investors are also aware that the current market is very strong and is continuing to strengthen. New collectors just starting out are learning this too. Consequently these new collectors, as well as seasoned collectors/investors are looking to jump on board so they are not left behind.

This week's sight-unseen market is extremely vibrant and alive with Bidding activity. The Walking Liberty Half Dollar series is extremely strong. Dealers are posting across-the-board supporting Bids for most of the late dates of the series. However, all the increasing Bids we see this week have their roots around the early and middle dates of this popular series. Interest is greatest for 1934 thru 1940-S dates in MS65 thru MS67 condition. Dealers have also posted increased Bids for select 1916 thru 1933-S early dates as well. The Mint State Type market is probably running a close second this week in terms of demand. Increases are found throughout the vast Type market but it is especially noticeable among Copper. Increased Bids are trying to secure some high grade Half Cents, Large Cents, Indian Head Cents and 2-Cent pieces. Dealers are hoping to buy Red & Brown and full Red examples because that is what their customers want. Silver Type is also hot, with increases attached to a diverse group this week. Three-Cent Silver, Capped Bust Half Dimes, 20-Cent pieces and Barber Halves are all higher. A $5,000 jump was also posted for the rare and desirable 1796-1797 Draped Bust, Small Eagle Half Dollar in MS63 at $90,000 Bid. Proof Type, while not as hot as Mint State, did find Bidders willing to increase the ante for select issues. Besides Proof Type, the same is true for the key date of the $2.50 Indian series, the 1911-D, with Bid increases present for examples grading MS62 thru MS64.

Mercury Dimes are alive and kicking with dealers increasing their Bid for several early dates from the key 1916-D thru 1928-S. Their interest is primarily chasing Full Band examples grading MS64 and MS65. Could this be the beginning of a long overdue move for Mercs? Silver Commemoratives and Morgan Dollars are also enjoying strong Bidding this week, but they have been more than overshadowed by stronger advances in other areas of the market. The bottom line is — a strong sight-unseen market continues in June with many areas participating.

Stack's conducted an auction in New York City on June 10 that realized $1.17 million. We have listed a few of the certified highlights from that sale.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Higher Sight-Unseen Bids For Early Walkers Generic Morgans Increase

Generally, we continue to see positive things taking place throughout the rare coin market. Optimism is omnipresent as dealers continue to search far and wide for the coins that they need. At each coin show and each time we talk with dealers, they tell us how badly they need to buy material. Dealer inventories continue to shrink, but that is only part of the story. Increased demand from their customers is directly responsible for many dealers actions. The degree and power of their Bids are also dependent upon the patience and financial means of their customers. Some of these customers are willing to pay whatever it takes, and in that regard Bidding can be scary. Jump Bids are usually a clear signal that a coin's sale is imminent, but not always. Demand for rare coins continues to remain solid today. The important customer base continues to grow, benefiting from the publicity and excitement each time a newly designed State Quarter is released to the public. We know that the collector base provides the market with a level of demand that helps to maintain prices. One indication of the strength and bullish nature of today's market is that even dealers who are generally pessimistic are now joining the other side. One dealer who Bids regularly for coins in the sight-unseen market said, "The market's great." He forms his conclusion easily after taking into account the number of people he knows that have bought and are trying to buy rare coins. Additional proof is seen by the increase in his retail sales. Some of the active areas in the sight-unseen market that he's been regularly trading includes Gold Type, Silver Commemoratives, Morgan Dollars, Peace Dollars and Walking Liberty Half Dollars.

This week, several areas of the sight-unseen market are enjoying increases as dealers look to buy material to satisfy some of the demand. $20 Saint-Gaudens have had the good fortune of being a hot commodity for many years. The highly popular Augustus Saint-Gauden's design and it's 0.96749 ounce of pure Gold, make it an attractive and desirable rare coin. However, add the rarity factor and set building challenge to this equation and it becomes elementary why so many collectors and collector/investors gravitate towards this segment of the market. Dealers have serious customers participating in building sets as well as individuals interested in buying just a few examples. Increases are appearing throughout our Saint chart this week as dealers look to help fulfill their customers needs.

Walking Liberty Half Dollars are similar to Saints in that their design is highly sought-after by collectors. Supporting demand is found throughout the series, with strong Bidding activity affecting the early dates. Select NGC examples have received several nice jump Bids this week. Demand is targeting the keys, especially from 1919 thru 1921-S. Many dealers believe that previous levels were just too low and extremely undervalued for select grades. Astute dealers know the importance and value in securing some of these rarities. These are coins that always seem to find buyers rather quickly and they don't remain in dealer inventories for very long. Dealers know that early Walkers are a good collector area of the market. One dealer said, "The whole bunch of early Circulated and Mint State Walkers are all better dates and some are especially rare such as any 1919 or 1921 dated issue." Increases are also occurring among Silver Commems, Morgan Dollars and Proof Type. These areas remain among the most popular in the coin market and they have done very well throughout the year. Dealers are looking for MS63 and better quality Silver Commems. Since many of these Commem issues were saved and preserved, quality examples are relatively easy to find. We see a number of increased Bids for Morgans. Semi-keys and common dates are inching higher with dealers willing to buy quantities of MS66 common dates and even a few at the MS67 level. Proof Type is finding buyers for select Barber and Liberty Seated coinage. Proof Morgan and Trade Dollars are also higher as well.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

ICG is Proud to Present

The "King of VAMs"

DISCOVERY COIN
1878

The VAM 44 Discovery Coin!

In 1963, a young Berkeley engineering student encountered a revolutionary booklet, entitled Morgan Dollar Varieties by F.X. Klaes. In this small volume, a previously unknown 7/8TF "Doubled Leaves" variety was among the coins featured. And the rest is history!

The student was none other than Leroy Van Allen.
And the coin? It was the first VAM 44, the "King of VAMs."

And naturally, IT'S IN AN ICG HOLDER!

Contact James Taylor for an ICG dealer submission kit.

Bids Increase To End A Strong June
MS64 Gold Type In Demand

Last week we pointed out the strong degree of optimism that is present in the sight-unseen market. This week finds more of the same, with an emphasis on more. That's because dealers are actively posting aggressive Bids for coins, sight-unseen. In many cases, these tenacious Bids are increases over the previously known highest Bid. It's no wonder that plus signs are far outnumbering the minus! It is becoming more and more obvious that the extreme need for material, both fresh and otherwise, is the overlying catalyst behind these increases. The nature of these dealers needs is certainly diverse, especially when you consider how many series and market segments are sporting advances. Dealers are trying to figure out a way to increase their depleted inventory levels and at the same time buy coins that they can offer to their customers. These customers have been patiently waiting to buy coins and their frustration is beginning to mount. Will this determination carry over to the June 26-29 Annual Mid-America Coin Expo in Rosemont, Il? Dealers in attendance will be plenty hungry to buy coins, that's for sure.

Today's demand for coins is solid and may be growing, as their customer's net worth has probably been increasing over the last month. Primarily, many have benefited as Wall Street has been providing them with an early Christmas present, even though we still have six more months until the holidays. Increases in the stock market have put a lot of buyers in good moods and they are more willing to stretch to buy a coin or even increase the number of coins they want to own. Wall Street also got a boost from the Federal Reserve Bank, where a recent two-day meeting concluded with a decrease in the Federal Funds Rate by one quarter of one percent.

Silver Commemoratives, Walkers and Morgan Dollars seem to be sharing the spot light this week in the sight-unseen market. Morgans have been generally strong throughout the year, and this week it's even more apparent how badly dealers need to buy select dates. Increases are occurring for common dates in MS63 DMPL, MS65, MS65 DMPL, MS66 and even a few MS67 examples. Key and semi-key dates are also playing an important role by advancing. Select New Orleans and San Francisco Mint issues in virtually all the Mint State grades are doing very well. Dealers are targeting many better dates that trade between $100 and $1,500. However, the 1880-O jumped to $12,000 Bid in MS65. NGC and PCGS have each graded just 17 examples with none higher. Of course, supporting Bids are seen nearly everywhere else in this challenging and popular series. Popularity is also seen among the myriad of plus signs to grace the Walker series. The heaviest concentration finds active Bidding for dates 1934 thru 1939-S, with additional interest for select dates of the short-set. These advances are mainly targeting high quality examples in MS65 thru MS67 condition. No doubt, registry set demand is playing a role in this activity. You may also note a few plus signs appearing for select early Walkers, continuing last week's trend. We know that many buyers are waiting to claim these prizes when they become available. Silver Commems are another area of the market where buyers are chasing high grade examples. Collectors appreciate the diversity and attractiveness of each Commem design. Adding to this demand, dealers tell us that many issues are affordable in high grade. In any event, dealers have pushed Bid higher for a number of issues in MS65 and better condition. While the big three dominate this week, diverse buying is also evident. Proof Stellas are up in PR61 thru PR63, continuing this year's strong demand. Also, select MS61 thru MS65 Mint State Gold Type is needed. A jump Bid of $650 was posted for MS63 $2.50 Indians in NGC or PCGS holders. Quantities of up to 100 pieces are needed at this level. NGC and PCGS MS64 $10 Indians received jump Bids to $900 while a $75 apiece increase to $950 is targeting $20 Type III Liberties in the same grade. Proof Singles are one area of the market that has been softening. Several issues are lower primarily do to auction sales and lower Bids. See this week's Market column for several examples of coins that continue to sell for prices well below current sight-unseen Bids.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer-to-dealer selling prices seen in the market based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks [illegible] and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues. The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication, we track the lowest sales-related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" Lowest asking price during the *w*eek prior to publication (*w*eek old); "m" Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (*m*onth old); "t" *T*rade during the most recent month; "lm" Lowest asking price appearing *l*ast *m*onth; "lt" *T*rade appearing *l*ast month; "ot" *T*rade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" - auction older than 1 month.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit on a sight basis

Early Walkers Explode With Activity

Dealers Optimistic For 2nd Half Of 2003

We begin the second half of the year on an optimistic note. First, the final major coin show of the first half has concluded in Rosemont, Illinois. Many dealers that attended the June 26-29 Annual Mid-America Expo were very satisfied with their results. Of course, many of them were there to buy coins and even though they had to spend more than they had expected, they were glad to come home with some new material. Secondly, many dealers have been extremely pleased with the rare coin market's performance during the first half of 2003 and they are encouraged that the second half may offer more of the same. This optimism is being expressed despite the current weakness in the economy because many analysts believe that improvement is expected, in part, from the Federal Reserve Banks latest action which lowered a key interest rate. The Federal Reserve knows that more financial medicine was needed to further stimulate the economy. A brighter outlook for future economic times means that collector/investors may be more ambitious in their demand and interest for select rare coins. Buyers may feel less stress and more willingness to buy coins. The demand for coins is still very strong today. Many dealers that we speak with on a regular basis confirm these sentiments.

Trading in the sight-unseen market this first week of July is rather interesting. How fitting is it to find Miss Liberty lighting up for our 4th of July issue? Check-out the number of increases this week for early Walking Liberty Half Dollars. We do realize that there has been an increase in demand for early Walkers seen for several months now. Dealers have told us earlier that there are many serious collector/investors out there building complete Walker sets. Some of these collectors are aggressively building "registry" sets. However, this is an extremely challenging task as many of the early dates are very tough to locate in Mint State condition. This is especially true for the rarities that abound from 1916 thru 1933-S. More than 60 plus signs shower our Walker Bid columns this week for that date range. Obviously, dealers need to buy the coins and hope to entice those that are holding into selling theirs. Even those dealers who don't have immediate customers for these rarities would be thrilled to add a few examples to their inventory. Unfortunately, supplies of the early key and semi-key dates are extremely limited and many knowledgeable dealers believe that several dates remain seriously undervalued. Demand is also very much present for several dates after 1933-S as well. Again, this is an extremely popular series and many collectors also enjoy the challenge of completing the short-set in high grade.

Dealers are facing the reality of the limited supply of available rare coins today. The current demand continues to far outstrip the current supply of rare coins in the market and that spells trouble for dealer inventory levels. So if you cannot buy all the rarities that you need for you customers, such as keys and semi-keys, you just look to buy "stuff." Generic Morgan Dollars are among the "stuff" that's being bought, sight-unseen, at higher levels. This week, Bid has increased to $35 and $74 for MS64 and MS65 common date Morgans respectively. These Bids are tendered for either NGC or PCGS certified Morgan Dollars. A slight increase is also appearing for MS66 NGC and PCGS generics as well as NGC MS65 DMPL examples. The Morgan Dollar series continues to attract much attention as many collectors are actively building sets and buying select dates. Along with the generic dates, we continue to see scarce dates increasing as well. Besides Morgans, increases are seen for MS63 Liberty Seated Dollars, both No Motto and With Motto, and Trade Dollars. Also, strong Bidding for $20 High Relief Saints is forcing a few plus signs on the Gold Type charts. We even spot a couple of plus signs on our Silver Commem chart. The 1923-S Monroe Doctrine Centennial grading MS67 is now Bid at $6,000. The balance of the overall sight-unseen market is experiencing strong supporting Bids throughout.

Before NCS

"In my twenty-five plus years as a professional numismatist, I have only witnessed a few industry-changing occurrences. Certification was one. NCS professional conservation is another. NCS is a tool that I now employ when making decisions on buying and selling coins. I strongly advise you to let NCS do the conservation work for you. Their work speaks for itself.

Kevin Lipton
Kevin Lipton Rare Coins, Beverly Hills, CA

"I chose NCS to evaluate and conserve a multi-million dollar collection of PCGS and NGC certified gold coins. NCS evaluted the entire collection and only conserved the coins that needed or would benefit from their efforts. My client and I are extremely pleased with the results.

After NCS

"NCS knows what they can do and how to do it well. Perhaps even more importantly, they know what they can't do and do not do it. I'm very happy with the results I have seen. NCS, used judiciously, has a important place in the serious collector's approach to our hobby. I recommend them highly to anyone considering using their services"

Bob Rudd, ANA Member, Greenbelt, MD

The field of tokens and medals has seen enormous movement as a direct result of NCS conservation services and NGC grading. These have been significant factors in increased sales in my area of numismatics. It goes without saying that I have been more than pleased with their services.

High Priced Rare Coins In Vogue Early Gold Is Alive And Kicking

Serious buyers of higher priced rare coins are more willing to pay above their originally anticipated estimates of just a few months ago. Recent bullishness on Wall Street has accounted for some of their optimism and willingness to extend for select rarities. The rare coin market continues to ride the wave of a solid and growing collector base. Increases are occurring at coin shows around the country, at public auctions and via posted dealer Bids on the electronic dealer networks. Shortages continue to plague dealers, both large and small, as they continue their efforts to satisfy and fill their customer want lists. The market continues to realize robust demand for product that is just simply not available. And, it is certainly not available in the quantities that's needed to allow demand and supply to attain equilibrium. Still, dealers are relentlessly trying new avenues and ways to buy the coins that they need. Many of them that are concluding their summer vacations know that the next several weeks will be very busy. The American Numismatic Association's 112th Anniversary Convention is scheduled to begin at the end of July. Already, dealers have their travel itinerary and game plan in place. Besides the convention and bourse activities, various public auctions are also scheduled during this time. Most dealers are anticipating an active ANA with strong demand continuing, especially with this year's venue being in the great rare coin city of Baltimore. On July 9, NGC announced that it will begin grading and authenticating complete sets of coins and then encapsulating them in a single holder. On July 16, Stack's will conduct a Mail Bid Sale in New York City. Along with ancient and world coins will be some U.S. material as well as Paper Money.

The sight-unseen market is reflecting the strength and power of the overall rare coin market. Usually the Early Gold chart is quickly passed by as few changes are the norm for this specialized area. However this week is anything but normal as an explosive number of Bids have been posted for $2.50, $5 and $10 pre-1835 Gold. Again, this is another indication where serious buyers are willing to stretch to buy higher priced rarities. A large number of increases are seen for both NGC and PCGS issues. Dealers are targeting many grades from AU58 thru MS64. Still, dealers or their customers would be ecstatic to own an AU58 example of our early Gold coinage. Many dealers believe that this area of the market is undervalued and given the relative rarity of these coins, they are probably right on the money. Other high priced coins are also making noise this week. $4 Flowing Hair Gold Stellas and Gobrecht Dollars are both up in Proof-61 thru Proof-63. Again, dealers are willing to increase Bid, sometimes substantially even at the lofty five-figure price level. Of course, dealers have told us that low grade Proof Gobrecht Dollars were just too undervalued. Selective Bidding is also up at the four-figure level as well. The 1923-S Buffalo is higher in MS64 and MS65 giving support to the notion that semi-key dates are badly needed. NGC Proof 1913-1916 Buffaloes are also up in the top grades. Four-figure Mint State Type Copper is strong in select grades. Dealers are looking to buy Draped Bust, Classic Head and Braided Half Cents; Coronet and Braided Large Cents; Copper-Nickel and Bronze Indian Head Cents; and Red 2-Cent pieces. Walkers are still smoldering from last week's gains as several four-figure Bids showed additional increases to this popular series. The key, 1921 Philadelphia is one example posting increases in MS63 thru MS65. Key date Washington Quarters are also participating. A large number of plus signs can also be found among Silver Commems and Morgan Dollars. Commems are increasing in the MS65 thru MS67 grades while Morgans are up in all Mint State grades. Please note the $1,000 increase, sight-unseen, for the 1880-O in MS65 to $13,000 Bid. Generic Morgans are bullish this week in MS63 DMPL, MS64 PL (a 10 percent gain for NGC and PCGS), MS65, MS65 PL, MS66 and MS67. Many believe that increasing prices of generic Dollars is a solid indication of a healthy and growing rare coin market.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

PROOFLIKE MORGAN DOLLARS

Mercury Rising, Dimes Too Generic Morgans & Walkers Higher

Most dealers prepare early when they schedule to attend the summer's American Numismatic Association's Anniversary Convention and public auctions associated with this major rare coin event. They need to make sure that business continues to prosper at home while one or more key people are at the show. They also know that their fund's position must be adequate enough to take advantage of the many possibilities that may come their way in Maryland. The July 30-Aug 3 ANA is nearly here but we know that many dealers will be in the Baltimore vicinity before then to participate in auctions. Despite the need for additional money at this time, we see dealers willing to increase their sight-unseen Bids in a number of areas. This increased Bidding is indicative of the powerful and strong market that dealers have been witnessing throughout much of the year. The shortage of material has not improved as of yet, according to dealers. Bidding for coin's sight-unseen is a quick and easy way to buy coins in a hurry and it is even a way to be, at times, pleasantly surprised. However, we know that many dealers are not naive when Bidding sight-unseen and they usually know what to expect when they receive their coins. Still for the most part, they need coins and are willing to increase their Bid in a valiant effort to be successful.

The sight-unseen market is buzzing this week. Interest is evident in several familiar segments as well as in a few areas that may surprise you. Almost everyone expects the mercury in thermometers to rise during mid-July and the rare coin market is participating. Surprise! Mercury Dimes are sporting loads of increased Bids this week. This usually quiet series is entertaining increases for Full Split Band issues in MS64 thru MS67. We knew that it was just a matter of time because strong supporting Bids had been in place for months. The diversity of the demand is seen by increased Bids ranging from $20 thru $31,000 for the 1942/41 in MS66FB. Morgan Dollars continue to attract Bidders. Generics remain hot with small increases occurring in MS65, MS65 DMPL, MS66 and MS67 grades. The balance of the series continues to receive supporting Bids at current levels. Several dealers believe that Morgans have been and remain the hottest area of the market. Many collector/investors are building sets of one kind or another. Even Peace Dollars, to a lesser degree, are participating this week with interest pushing Bids higher for a few lower end Mint Sate key and semi key dates. Mint State and Proof Type are also a force in the market. Proof Type is selectively higher, led by Copper issues. Indian Cents and 2-Cent pieces are up in Proof 65 and better grades. Mint Red color is demanded for the Proof Bronze Indian Cents and 2-Cent pieces. Proof Gobrecht Dollars are up again, following last week's increase. Barber Dimes, Quarters and Halves are actively higher on our Mint State Type chart. Mint State Walking Liberty Halves continue to attract many supporting Bids. Increases this week are specifically chasing MS64 common dates at the new higher $35 Bid level. Among Gold, $20 Saints are doing extremely well despite volatility in Gold Spot. Dealers have increased Bid for many dates in the MS63 thru MS65 range because they have customers waiting to buy coins. Many of the dates needed are the key and semi-key dates of this extremely challenging series. Silver Commems are also vibrant this week with increasing Bids seen for dozens of issues in quality grades. There is some weakness, but it is confined to Proof Walking Liberty Half Dollars and common date, non Full Head Standing Liberty Quarters.

Superior Galleries will host the Michael Arconti Collection of Large Cent Errors on July 27 followed by the Elite Coin Auction July 27-28 in Baltimore. We have listed a few of the certified highlights.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit on a sight basis.

Got Spots?

Copper spots, carbon spots and other surface contaminants not only negatively effect eye appeal and marketability of coins they can also become more severe over time.

NCS, the #1 authority in professional numismatic conservation, can remedy this problem while protecting the underlying original surfaces of the coin.

NCS has developed advanced techniques for addressing most forms of contamination without the use of abrasive, high risk or potentially damaging methods.

Don't risk letting an unsightly spot turn into active corrosion or an improper effort to remove it result in a "problem coin".

Traditionally, learning a lesson in the rare coin market has been very expensive. You would buy a coin for $500, find out later that it was worth only $50, and, thus, you would have to pay $450 to learn just one lesson. But now, thanks to the fourth edition of The Coin Collector's Survival Manual™, by Scott A. Travers, you no longer have to pay a fortune to learn about how to buy and sell coins profitably.

This thoroughly revised edition examines the coin field from an insider's perspective and continues to break new ground in revealing the ins and outs of coin collecting and investing. Excellent photographs and detailed charts amplify the encyclopedic, clearly written, meticulously organized text. You'll learn about the following:

- How to look at coins the way the professionals do
- How to determine what a coin is worth and what grade the leading certification services would assign to it
- How to spot slight friction on otherwise "Gem" coins
- How to tell the difference between proof and prooflike
- How lighting affects appearance—and the latest in halogen flashlights
- Altered and counterfeit detection techniques
- How to judge price guide accuracy
- Selecting and testing a coin dealer

SPECIAL SECTIONS ON:

- Doctored coins, how to detect them, and the case of the doctored hoard of gold rarities that got slabbed
- The real truth about slab services "fixed grading standard" claims and premium quality coins
- Revelations from a leading coin trader
- A grading service founder's startling admission of modified grading standards
- The newest tax laws

- How not to get ripped off if you buy coins through the mail or over the Internet
- Profitable - and not-so-profitable - liquidation techniques
- How to buy and sell at conventions like the pros do
- How to spot a cleaned and artificially toned coin
- How to choose a non-destructive coin holder and safe—as well as the right storage method
- A review of some Internet web sites, with a legal analysis
- Requirements of the FTC telemarketing act
- The real facts behind the toning corrosion controversy

NEW information in the fourth edition:

- Courageous information about on-line auctions—no other numismatic author has ever been as bold in exposing Internet scams!
- A comparison of PCGS versus NGC—which service does the market really favor?
- Stunning exposé and bombshell interview on coin "doctoring"
- Special full-color section on artificially toned and doctored coins

and much, much more!

CERTIFIED COIN DEALER newsletter

CCDN — a weekly report on the Sight-Unseen certified market published by the Coin Dealer Newsletter (est. 1963)

Vol. XVIII No. 30 July 25, 2003 Single copy price $4.00

Many Public Auctions Supply Market
Dollars, Walkers & Commems Actively Increasing

The sight-unseen rare coin market is performing extremely well as the American Numismatic Association's 112th Anniversary Convention draws near. Dealers have been willing to spend money now rather than waiting for the opportunities that may present themselves during the big show and at the multiple public auctions surrounding the event. The ANA convention will begin July 30 and conclude on August 3 with dealers and collectors hungry to buy select coins in Baltimore. Dealers are constantly carrying want lists and are diligently trying to fulfill their needs. Their quest may take a turn for the better as thousands of rare coin lots are currently scheduled to hit the auction block in the next few weeks (see below). Still, dealers expect stiff competition from their fellow dealers and serious collector/investors for the better date coins in desirable grades. The activity level in the market has been steadily increasing as these important numismatic events near. Dealers have been actively consummating deals via private transactions and they have also increased their participation on the electronic dealer networks by aggressively Bidding for the coins that they still need. A fast moving market means that the chance of missing an opportunity increases. We are still finding dealers offering coins for sale at a prices below current sight-unseen Bid. Those dealers that are able to keep up with this fast paced market are also better able to maximize their profits. Dealers are aware that the economic climate in this country has improved somewhat compared to earlier in the year, so they expect to see buyers being more willing to spend for the good stuff. Bidding for higher priced rarities is occurring with greater frequency today. Gold and Silver bullion have also provided a lift to the market. As of this writing, Silver made an impressive move by passing through the $5 per ounce level while Gold has passed $360.

This week's sight-unseen market is not only more active, but we are continuing to see a strong amount of supporting Bids in virtually all areas of the market. Dealers have been inching Bids higher in many areas but we also see serious jump Bids for select coins as well. Walking Liberty Half Dollars and Morgan Dollars are continuing their strong performance that we saw last week. These two series have been the target of incredible demand throughout the year and it seems that dealers just can't get enough of these coins. Demand is powerful for Morgan Dollars as a steady stream of serious collector/investors look to buy select dates. Generics, "CC" and semi-key "S" Mints are being hotly pursued. Increases are appearing for many dates in these categories. The scope of the demand is seen from the increases in 2- and 3-figure generics to the 4- and 5-figure rarities. Note the jump increase for the two keys, 1889-CC and 1892-S, in MS61 for both NGC and PCGS. Our Walker chart is depicting a massive number of plus signs for NGC and PCGS examples. Quality is being emphasized as MS65 thru MS67 are in demand. Middle and late dates of the series are attracting the primary attention this week with supporting Bids in place for the tough early dates. Silver Commems are also generating a number of plus signs. Quality is also required in this area of the market with MS65 thru MS67 issues moving higher. Oregon Trail Memorial issues among others are in demand. Gold Type is steady to selectively advancing. Lower Mint State $20 Libs and Saints are beginning to move, primarily due to increasing bullion. Scarce $3 Gold is higher with NGC and PCGS examples up in several grades. Also note the increases for MS66 $5, $10 and $20 Type III Liberty coins. Collector/investors are more willing to spend for high-grade Gold today.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer-to-dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks, sell lists coin shows and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase, or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication we track the lowest sales-related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" - Lowest asking price during the week prior to publication (week old); "m" - Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (month old); "t" - Trade during the most recent month; "lm" Lowest asking price appearing last month: "lt" Trade appearing last month; "ot" Trade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" auction older than 1 month.

Garrett&Hamrick VENTURES

Garrett & Hamrick Ventures wants to purchase your rare coins. Recently, Jeff Garrett and John Hamrick formed a joint venture to assist a multi-million dollar rare coin fund in locating and purchasing individual rare coins, large collections, and hoards. At Garrett & Hamrick Ventures we understand what a difficult decision selling your rare coin(s) is. It seems as though everyone is promising to pay you the most, but it is hard to determine your best option. Today's rare coin market is very complex and getting the highest prices for your coins requires someone who can assist you with research, grading, and pricing. It is for this reason that Knowledge is the foundation of our approach to buying rare coins.

Jeff Garrett is the co-author of Significant Auction Records of United States Coins (a mammoth 3 volume reference work) and 100 Greatest United States Coins. Jeff Garrett was also one of the original coin graders for Professional Coin Grading Service. John Hamrick was the founder of World-Wide Coin Investments, Ltd, which was one of the first publicly traded rare coin companies in the nation. He has bought and sold most of the classic U.S. Coin rarities such as the 1804 Bust Dollar, 1894-S Barber Dime and the 1913 Liberty Nickel. In addition John Hamrick has been one of the country's leading rare coin retailers for over 30 years and is constantly in touch with today's ever-changing market conditions and prices. Together Garrett and Hamrick have handled nearly every United States coin listed in the Redbook!

Long Lost 1913 Liberty Nickel Surfaces ICG And SEGS Now Listed

Many dealers are already actively buying and selling rare coins at the American Numismatic Association's Anniversary Convention in Baltimore. Indications that the positive expectations that dealer's expressed prior to the ANA's opening day may become true, judging from the action that has already transpired. Activity has been brisk as more than $26 million changed hands at several public auctions taking place in Maryland. These auctions gave the market exactly what it was looking for at this particular time, namely supply. We have listed a few of the many certified highlights from each of the completed sales. In any event, this year's ANA is sure to offer some surprises. For example, on July 30 we learned that the missing fifth example of the famous 1913 Liberty Head Nickel had been found. It has already been examined by six knowledgeable numismatists that, after inspecting the coin, have agreed to its authenticity. The $1 million dollar reward offered earlier by Bowers and Merena may have been directly responsible for the coin coming to light after it had been missing for more than 40 years. Nevertheless, everyone can now put away their metal detectors and stop looking.

This week's CCDN (the Bluesheet) is now including, on a regular basis, sight-unseen Bids for two additional professional grading and authentication services - ICG and SEGS. The Colorado based Independent Coin Grading Company (ICG) was established in 1998 and has already graded and authenticated more than one million coins. They are also the only professional grading service to offer Intercept Shield protection within their slabs. Sovereign Entities Grading Service Inc., (SEGS) also entered the field of "third party grading" in 1998. The color coded top viewing label found on their slabs is the hallmark of this companies holder. We are now also listing sight-unseen Bids for GSA Dollars that have been graded by NGC and remain in their original government holder. These additions can be found on pages A thru D in the first issue of each month.

This week's sight-unseen market may be more about what you don't see than what you do see. We all know that dealers are actively looking to buy rare coins. The growing collector base has helped to make the demand side of the equation very powerful. However, this is ANA week and it has a way of diverting the attention and funds from one portion of the market to another. The large number of public auctions taking place during this time is also creating a strong pull on dealer's funds. This doesn't even include the cost of transportation, food and lodging for those in attendance. Consequently, it is understandable that this week's pages are lacking the usual number of plus signs that we have grown accustom to this year. Still, we do see a vast number of supporting Bids spanning most of the sight-unseen market. Besides all that support, some increases can be found in the Morgan series. No surprise! Dealers continue to chase generic Morgans and they are looking to buy them in quantity. They want NGC or PCGS examples in grades MS64 thru MS67. Their need is so great that buyers say, "They can be real dogs, I don't care." Still, strong demand for Morgans is not surprising. A couple other increases appearing this week in Proof Gold are somewhat noteworthy. We have, in earlier issues, been reporting on the increasing demand for high ticket material. Proof Gold, led by the 1879 $4 Flowing Hair Stellas, is gaining more and more attention from Bidders. It is easy to see that big money is being earmarked for rare coins.

Gold Heats Up In All Flavors
Key Dates Rocket Higher

The American Numismatic Association's Annual Convention in Baltimore was a huge success for virtually all dealers in attendance. A strong public turnout was evident from the long lines of people waiting to get a glance at the five 1913 Liberty Head Nickels that were on display. Others were walking up and down the isles to view the various show exhibits and still others were actively checking out the material in each dealer's show case. Interest in rare coins is exceptionally high with collectors and collector/investors no longer content with just kicking the tires. There are real buyers today and they are spending strong money to buy select issues. The diversity of demand is what makes this market especially powerful. Many areas of the market are participating with higher sight-unseen Bids being posted week after week. It's no wonder that dealers continue to remain extremely bullish about the market's future. Besides the brisk sales transacted during the show, many auctions supplied the market with a huge number of lots that were desperately needed to satisfy an ever increasing collector demand. Most dealers were more than satisfied with their show results. Some dealers believe that unreasonably high reserves prevented even more sales at auction. It may be a case of being a bit too optimistic, but in a good market who can blame them. The strength of this market is easily seen when you compare the number of positive comments by dealers despite many of them having different specialties. The scope of today's demand is broad enough to allow dealers to sell coins to a collector base that's hungry for almost anything numismatic.

The sight-unseen market, following last week's pre-ANA lull, is off to the races again. However, it is important to point out that discounting is also playing a healthy role. We usually see a fair amount of discounting when auctions are held and these past 10 days of auctions provided a vast amount of needed material. The coins that were offered with no or low reserves were certainly vulnerable to discounting. Consequently it is not unusual to see declines, sometimes even severe drops. We know that dealers need to, in some cases, blow-out some material to raise funds. However, the discounting is definitely overshadowed by the continued market strength that we see in many sectors. Gold is coming to the head of the class this week. Plus signs are seen all over our Mint State Gold Type columns. Even though generic Gold was somewhat sluggish on the bourse, due to a dropping bullion, it is being gobbled up at the present. Proof Gold is also receiving a significant number of plus signs this week. This sector is usually quiet with little change, but is now booming, led by $4 Stellas. According to one dealer, there is "pure demand" right now. Collectors are starting to buy Proof Gold again and taking it off the market. Early Gold Type is also garnering the attention of dealers, completing the circle for a totally strong and diverse market for Gold. Solid demand and plus signs for Gold usually means that "big money" is definitely earmarked for rare coins. This money is also seen pouring into the Morgan Dollar market, which remains powerfully strong. This week's Dollars are being led by the "King of Morgans," Proof 1895 Morgan Silver Dollar Bids have increased in many grades for several weeks, and this week Bids have exploded even further to the upside. Early Walking Liberty Half Dollars remain hot! It may not appear that way at first glance but strong supporting Bids are everywhere. Also at the ANA, we heard that several dealers are quietly trying to buy select Walker rarities for their customers. Supplies of these elusive beauties are thin and strong money is waiting to pounce when given the opportunity. A reoccurring theme heard on the bourse and seen on our newsletter is the strong demand for key dates. Besides the 1895 Morgan, keys of all series are highly sought-after and actively increasing. For example, check out this week's action of a few Washington Quarter keys and the 1911-D $2.50 Indian.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services determined through careful study of market activity [illegible] nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high [illegible] Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the [illegible] of the dealers and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnp.[illegible]

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN albeit on a sight basis.

PROOFLIKE MORGAN DOLLARS

P/L Dollars may be semi-reflective, with less reflectivity than the deep-mirror Prooflikes. Bids for P/L's are usually much lower than for DMPL's, but command some premium over non-P/L strikes.

CERTIFIED COIN DEALER newsletter

Hot Market Stuck On Cruise Control
$90,000 Sight-Unseen Bid For High Reliefs

The strength of the current booming rare coin market can be measured as much by what is hidden from view as well as by just examining the sharply increasing Bids. It is easy to understand that large percentage sight-unseen Bid jumps usually indicate a strong demand for a particular coin and segment of the market. It also points to the frustration of not being able to find one after exploring many other avenues. However, the last few months have had plenty of this kind of activity with dealers willing to aggressively Bid sight-unseen for select coins. This Bidding hasn't been confined to any particular area of the market but rather it is very broad, covering a wide range of dates, denominations and grades. The strong growth of the collector base is an important reason that demand has been able to overpower the limited supply. Dealers are encouraged that this growth is made of real substance and not just a short term flash in the pan. Relatively low interest rates, a generally flat economy and lackluster stock prices have taken their toll. Add to this an increasing Gold and Silver bullion market and the Minting of State Quarters, Sacagawea Dollars and new Jefferson Nickel designs which have all combined to create an atmosphere conducive for markedly higher rare coin prices. For dealers, optimism of this nature is contagious.

Yet, there are a numerous number of supporting Bids that are being tendered on the electronic dealer networks on a daily basis that may be overlooked. These are important Bids that represent a desire to buy and also indicate a demand that is still unsatisfied. Supporting Bids are most plentiful this week in the sight-unseen market and far outnumbering the plus signs. Still, the few plus signs that are appearing are certainly making a lot of noise. We know that no market goes straight up without a period of consolidation and/or profit taking. And while we do see some discounting, it's only a limited number. The ANA and events surrounding it are probably responsible for this slight weakness. It has come time to pay for the large number of auction lots that many dealers had won during this period. Consequently dealers may need to sell some coins to facilitate the debt paying process. This is a time when dealers evaluate their inventory holdings to see what coins need to be discounted for quick sale. Yet, despite the discounting, heaviest in the Gold Commems, dealers are still facing unfulfilled customer want lists along with an inventory that's in dire need of restoration.

Bidding sight-unseen is still offering up some of the usual customers and also some surprises. Plus signs are occurring in the Morgan series, again. We see dealers willing to push Bids higher for generic Dollars, either NGC or PCGS, in MS64 thru MS66. Carson City and generic Morgans have been enjoying an excellent year. Check out the increases among some of the better dates of the series. The 1879-CC, 1879-CC Capped Die, 1889-CC, 1893-CC and 1904-S are all advancing in several grades. Peace Dollars are also enjoying increased Bids among the generics. Early Walking Liberty Half Dollars are continuing their strong demand. Select dates are higher in MS63 thru MS65. Demand for $20 Saint-Gaudens is seen for much more than just the common dates of the series. We know that the generic Saints are increasing, in part because Gold bullion has moved past $360 per ounce as of this writing. Increases are occurring in grades MS62, MS64 and MS65 with support seen for the other grades. Increasing Gold prices often spurs buyers of numismatic Gold to buy common date Saints. It's an attractive design and contains nearly one ounce of Gold. However, the real action is taking place at the upper echelon of the series. $20 High Reliefs are smoking! These are rather costly in any grade but just check out what's happening in MS67 this week. Interest is also strong for the major rarities of the series including 1920-S, 1921 and 1929 thru 1932-D. It would take a serious collector/investor with deep pockets to be able to complete this series, even if they leave out the 1933 and 1927-D.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the [illegible] nationally reported sight unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks [illegible] Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

44-COIN HOT LIST ◆ 44-COIN BLACKLIST

Foreword by Q. David Bowers

"Scott Travers' Top 88 Coins Over $100 is potentially enriching, educational and enlightening. It provides market-oriented information against a rich backdrop of the history and lore of coins. Top 88 is far more than just an investment book - it's a landmark work that opens the world of coinage to the reader!

◆ R.W. Julian, numismatic researcher and scholar

"Read this book closely and you'll get a new perspective on what really counts when you buy and sell coins. Follow the recommendations embodied in these pages and you'll be well on the way to being a winner yourself!"

◆ from the introduction by Ed Reiter, former numismatics columnist, The New York Times

Buying and selling rare coins can be a hit-or-miss proposition - unless you get expert directions. This book by well-known New York City coin dealer Scott A. Travers, with a foreword by Q. David Bowers, is a perfect guide.

In The Top 88, Travers draws a road map detailing both the hits and the misses - the coins that in his opinion represent good value at current market levels and those in his opinion you should steer clear of. He identifies 44 winners and 44 losers, puts them in historical perspective and vividly describes why each could be your best or worst coin buy. The list runs the gamut from classic U.S. coinage of the nation's early years to such modern-day issues as the Susan B. Anthony dollar.

You'll learn that winners and losers can exist side by side within the very same series. And you'll see how a given coin can sometimes be a winner in one grade, or level of preservation, and yet be a loser in a grade just a little bit higher or lower.

This book, like a piano, provides you with 88 keys that will help you make beautiful music - only this time, according to Travers, you'll be singing all the way to the bank if you play the right "notes" in buying coins.

You'll learn about:

- The elements of value
- Independent third-party grading
- The age of type coins
- Opinions relating to what coins are "losers"
- A list of coins that are "winners"
- Why every coin listed has something to like and something to dislike
- One-year type coins
- Generic Morgan dollars
- Commemorative coins
- Mint-error coins
- Uncirculated late-date coins
- Late-date proof sets from 1968 to date
- Marketplace data and expert opinions on every listed coin
- Meticulously researched historical information

Before NCS

After NCS

"In my twenty-five plus years as a professional numismatist, I have only witnessed a few industry-changing occurrences. Certification was one. NCS professional conservation is another. NCS is a tool that I now employ when making decisions on buying and selling coins. I strongly advise you to let NCS do the conservation work for you. Their work speaks for itself.

Kevin Lipton
Kevin Lipton Rare Coins, Beverly Hills, CA

"I chose NCS to evaluate and conserve a multi-million dollar collection of PCGS and NGC certified gold coins. NCS evaluted the entire collection and only conserved the coins that needed or would benefit from their efforts. My client and I are extremely pleased with the results.

Dennis Daray
Southern Coins & Precious Metals, Metarie, LA

"NCS knows what they can do and how to do it well. Perhaps even more importantly, they know what they can't do and do not do it. I'm very happy with the results I have seen. NCS, used judiciously, has a important place in the serious collector's approach to our hobby. I recommend them highly to anyone considering using their services"

Bob Rudd, ANA Member, Greenbelt, MD

The field of tokens and medals has seen enormous movement as a direct result of NCS conservation services and NGC grading. These have been significant factors in increased sales in my area of numismatics. It goes without saying that I have been more than pleased with their services.

Serious Money Seeking Serious Coins
Wealth Of Information In Market Columns

The rare coin market continues bullish as the second month of summer concludes. Most of the dealers that we speak with on a regular basis remain extremely pleased with the market. This has been their sentiments whether they're on the east coast, west coast or somewhere in between. Interest for rare coins is being experienced in all parts of the country. Optimism concerning the market's progress is everywhere and it's growing stronger almost all the time. However, there are some that say things may be slowing down from the exceptionally hectic pace that has been seen so far. However, this opinion stems from unpaid auction bills and not from customer driven demand. These dealers say that the huge number of auction lots that were hammered down earlier this month are weighing heavily on those who were successful buyers. Cash flow is an important aspect of the market as it takes liquidity to sustain the current level as well as to experience more growth. Of course any bull market is expected to experience ebb as part of its natural course. Still one west coast dealer said, "This is the best market in the world." It is easy to agree with his point of view when you understand just how much money is pouring into the rare coin market. Trades are occurring for coins with price tags of only a few dollars to those rarities surpassing the $1 million plateau. For the increased demand of low grade entry level coins, dealers credit the publicity via television, radio, newspaper and the Internet for their role in expanding the customer base. These first time buyers are enthusiastic and eager to expand their horizons while enjoying their coins. Circulated coinage of many series and denominations are readily needed in quantity by dealers. The demand is so great that dealers are increasing Bid regularly in an effort to keep orders satisfied. Not surprisingly, higher grades and key dates continue advancing. Dealers say, "There is more money than ever before," earmarked for rare coins. They believe that so many have become disenchanted by the limited returns they've received from their stocks as well as from the very low interest rates banks offer as an alternative. Consequently they want more from their investments with some of them willing to give rare coins a try. These are sophisticated collector/investors that believe select rarities are very undervalued. They are willing to spend serious money for the right coins. This is the kind of money that's propelling the market to higher levels today and keeping future expectations solidly optimistic.

The sight-unseen market is experiencing continued discounting as dealers maneuver their holdings to cover bills and freshen inventory. Dealers are quick to "blow-out" coins that have lingered too long or are unattractive for the grade. Remember, sight-unseen Bids are made with the possibility that a transaction may result with a coin that's at the "very" bottom of its grade range. Insurance? Yes, sight-unseen Bids may represent the bottom line in value for a specific coin and as such, a valuable bit of information. More valuable information that is often overlooked can be found in our Market columns that we publish on the fourth week of the month. Here you will see the lowest trades, auction prices realized and current wholesale Asking prices. Several auction prices realized, preceded by the "a" symbol that are below the current Bid reflect sellers not doing their homework and paying the price (by loosing the difference between the Bid and the auction sale price, including fees). Blanks in the Market column also offer valuable information and may point to an undervalued issue. Absent symbols mean that it has been quite some time since we have seen a particular issue offered for sale. Trades "t" and Last Trades "lt" found next to a higher Bid often represent a need for more coins and or multiple dealers competing for the same coin. The complete list of Market column symbols and their meanings can be found at the top of page 2A.

Morgan Dollars continue to pace the market and Carson City dates continue to pace the Morgans. Also notice the huge percentage jump for the tough 1904 Philadelphia semi-key in MS65 this week. Remember, we said that serious money is chasing select rarities. Peace Dollars are enjoying an excellent August for generics. MS65 examples are higher again this week, now Bid at $69 for those certified by NGC and PCGS. Mint State and Proof Type are solid with a jump Bid targeting NGC Capped Bust Halves in MS67. Mint State and Proof Gold are steady with increases occurring for business strike $20 Saints despite bullion fluctuations. Some select date Mercs are higher as MS67 Full Split Band issues are sought-after. Walkers remain hot with increases seen for both NGC and PCGS middle dates. Proof Singles have been a bit soft for a few weeks and remain sluggish.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer–to–dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks sell lists coin shows and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues. The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase, or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication we track the lowest sales–related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" Lowest asking price during the week prior to publication (*w*eek old); "m" Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (*m*onth old); "t" *T*rade during the most recent month; "lm" Lowest asking price appearing *l*ast *m*onth "lt" *T*rade appearing *l*ast month; "ot" *T*rade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" auction older than 1 month.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight–unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN albeit on a sight basis.

Short-Set Walkers Impressive Hoard Of 1887 Dimes Surfaces

Dealers continue to be "impressed with the market." Activity has been brisk as dealers are finding out that coins that are reasonably priced can sell very quickly. Overall, dealers just believe that this is a "healthy" market that has a bright future because of the continued influx of new collectors. The credit for this expanding bull market continues to be pegged to the highly successful State Quarter program. Dealers say that many customers that began collecting the Quarters are now looking to add some Morgan Dollars and Walking Liberty Half Dollars to their holdings. Many of the 19th and 20th century Type coins are familiar to these people because they remember the designs from examples that were left to them by their parents or grandparents. The real kicker comes from their affordability. Many are amazed at how reasonably priced these "old" coins are today, especially in Uncirculated condition. They believe that buying rare coins will not only give them some enjoyment but will most likely retain their value, that is if they don't increase first. Unfortunately, that hasn't been the case for many of their investments in the stock market. Also, they aren't excited about the low interest rates offered by banks. Rare coins, on the other hand, have been enjoying an excellent return on investment in 2003. Powerful demand and an expanding collector base keep strong prospects of future growth alive and well.

It may be 2003 but neat deals are still taking place. One dealer in Des Moines has had the good fortune to buy a collection from a third generation banking family in Iowa. The deal included over 100 Uncirculated 1887 Liberty Seated Dimes that had been put away at the time they were Minted. Other coins of note in the deal included Uncirculated 1901 Liberty Head Nickels as well as an Uncirculated roll of 1910 Lincoln Cents. Some of the coins were wrapped in cellophane and waxed paper. He had sent the Dimes into NGC and got back 1-MS60, 8-MS61, 22-MS62, 40-MS63, 26-MS64 and 5-MS65. He told us that about 80 percent are brilliant white and the Dimes, along with the Nickels, will be resold to the highest Bidder as a lot. As this is being written, he has already received a ton of interest and Bids that are running 10 percent above current levels. Also, the 29 1901 Liberty Nickels were returned by NGC as follows: 7-MS63, 17-MS64 and 5-MS65. This is a perfect example of just how strong the demand is today. It shows that dealers are willing to buy in quantity at levels that are higher than the cost of a single unit.

Walking Liberty Half Dollars are alive and active in the sight-unseen market with buyers looking for every single date that makes up the short-set from 1941-1947-D. Numerous trades have already taken place this week on the Certified Coin Exchange but more examples are needed as demand remains unsatisfied. Select increases are also found among the tougher early dates in MS63, MS64 and MS65. However, our chart on the short-set indicates impressive annual gains in MS65 and better. Compare these gains to the stock market or current interest rates. Silver and Gold Commemoratives are steady this week with support evident throughout. A similar trend is taking place in the Morgan Series along with slight Bid increases to $46 for NGC and PCGS MS63 DMPL common dates. Peace Dollars are realizing solid support with a few increases targeting the better dates: 1928 and 1928-S. Mint State and Proof Type find many Bidders willing to pay current levels. Gold Type is steady with increases occurring for low grade $20 Libs and Saints. Gold bullion closing right around the $370 per ounce plateau has helped to stimulate demand in this area. Buffalo Nickels remain active with the 1923-S and 1928-D receiving increasing Bids for the second time this month. Interestingly, the 1923-S also had two weeks of increases in July. Dealers that have a ready buyer waiting are more willing to aggressively pay what's necessary to complete the transaction. We know that this market is still receiving supporting Bids throughout. Dealers have been repeating their strong Bids hoping to nail down a few coins. So, even though you don't find many plus signs be assured that this market has not lost any of its steam.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

A Powerhouse Of A Market
Long Beach Expo & Auctions Upcoming

This market is "as strong as ever," according to an avid buyer on the east coast. The same sentiments were heard from dealers that were in attendance at a recent show in Chicago, saying "many things are selling." The optimism that's being expressed concerning all aspects of the market is undeniable. It is this optimism that will be expected when dealers come to together on the west coast for the September 18-21 Long Beach Expo. The auctions surrounding this show will only add to the excitement and expectations. We know that dealers continue to be pleased with the growth of the customer base and they are extremely happy that new customers are actively pursuing rare coins. However with all this sunshine, it's only a matter of time before a little bit of rain must fall. This is not a warning but it does remind buyers that at some level you should expect to see some profit taking. Still the forecast is for more sunshine. Dealers have told us that their customers, who have become disenchanted with their performance in stocks, are looking to diversify and put some money into "certified rare coins." Most of the coins that are being sold to this group of collector/investors will be put away for many years. These are individuals that can afford to wait for profits, and it spells fewer coins available on the market. That's where the problem is growing larger day by day. Dealers are in the trenches, battling one another at public auction and at shows in an effort to buy coins and fill want lists. Dealers are forced to pay very strong money to be successful buyers today. Coins are still available but you have to be realistic in today's market. Many of them give a huge amount of credit to the Internet. They tell us that they are selling four- and five-figure rare coins to people they've never even met. Certified coins and the Internet have combined to be a powerful marketing tool for dealers.

Many areas of the sight-unseen market continue to turn-in impressive results. Supporting Bids are evident all across the market as dealers continue to plug away at their want lists and inventory needs. It's also amazing how their strongest needs continue to play like a broken record as Bid increases week after week. Dealers are very interested in buying better date Morgan Dollars. Note the increases for 1880-O, 1886-O, 1891, 1892, 1892-CC, 1893-CC and 1895-S. Collectors are practically lined up in front of their shops trying to complete sets. However they need to be patient because better date Dollars are experiencing super demand these days. Also, the Pan-Pac $50 Round Commem is in strong demand in grades up to MS64. Select MS65 Mint State Type Dimes and Quarters are higher this week. Gold Type is steady to higher overall. Better date $20 Saint-Gaudens is another series that is capturing the attention of well-heeled collectors. The publicity that surrounded the sale of the 1933 earlier in 2002 has certainly helped to put a charge in this challenging and expensive series. Select date Buffaloes are in motion with demand keeping Bids steady to higher. A similar scenario is occurring in the Walking Liberty Half Dollar series where continued strong collector demand is evident, particularly among the tough early dates.

Three Beverly Hills, California auctions that are on tap in September might help dealer's load-up for the Fall season. We have listed a few certified highlights from the September 14 Bowers and Merena Rarities Sale, the Sept. 14-16 Pre-Long Beach Elite Auction by Superior Galleries and the Sept. 15-17 Pre-Long Beach Auction to be conducted by Ira & Larry Goldberg C&C.

Got Spots?

Copper spots, carbon spots and other surface contaminants not only negatively affect eye appeal and marketability of coins, they can also become more severe over time.

NCS, the #1 authority in professional numismatic conservation, can remedy this problem while protecting the underlying original surfaces of the coin.

NCS has developed advanced techniques for addressing most forms of contamination without the use of abrasive, high risk, or potentially damaging methods.

Don't risk letting an unsightly spot turn into active corrosion or an improper effort to remove it result in a "problem coin".

Trust NCS to professionally conserve your coins and protect their original surfaces.

NCS is the Conservation Service of choice for the ANA
